

SAVANNAH MEET OF ELKS EXPECTED TO RIVAL MARDI GRAS

(Special to The Intelligencer.) Savannah, Ga., May 26.—Plans for the National Convention of the Fraternal Order of Elks, which will be held in Savannah August 14th-18th, are practically complete, and residents of the region will have the opportunity of attending a carnival that will rival the famous New Orleans Mardi Gras in brilliancy and splendor.

The entire city will be in holiday attire. The streets near the passenger station will be replastered in red, white and blue. Overhead hundreds of incandescent lamps, shed a soft, mellow glow at night over the thoroughfares.

The street in the downtown shopping districts will be more brilliantly decorated until the entire center looks like a huge playground designed by the Gods for people who inhabit the earth.

But in Bull street, the beautiful promenade, that the decorations will be most elaborate. The colors of the Fraternal Order of Elks are red, white and blue. They make the task of the master decorator easier and will result in scenes that have been witnessed in few parts of the country and probably never in the south. Many beautiful designs and lights of many shades and hues will be worked into one magnificent canopy over the street. This is the street of monuments. In nearly every square there is a park with a tall monument, commemorating the deed of some hero who gave his life or made other great sacrifice for his country, extending far above the tree tops. The monuments will be gaily decorated with flags, flags and bunting.

Beneath this brilliant canopy, with thousands of people in gaily decorated boxes, forming a human square, hundreds of pretty girls in fancy costumes with their escorts will dance in streets every night during the Convention. The space reserved for dancing is six blocks in length. To furnish music four bands will be required.

The scene will be enlivened by the bright uniforms of officers of the army and navy, from war ships and submarines in the harbor from Fort Stevens, the port near Savannah.

This is only one of the many attractions that have been arranged. There are many more equally as attractive. They include a grand parade, the crowning event of the Convention, which will take place on Thursday, August 17th, bathing in the surf at Tybee, an unusual merchants contest in which each visitor will have a chance to win one of the three $50.00 prizes, and many other things. The program has been arranged for the enjoyment of not only members of the Fraternal Order of Elks but for the public at large and it is expected that thousands will come from Georgia and neighboring states to take part in the festivities.

WAITE ALSO PLANNED TO KILL WIFE

Waite appeared pale, but seemed to have braced himself to face the ordeal. His counsel, Walter R. Deuel, told Justice Shearn he had only a few more questions to ask Waite.

Waite said he never tried to kill his wife and never planned to do so. "I am sure," he said, however, "that I would not have killed her."

Cross-examination then began. Assistant District Attorney Brothers first question was regarding whether Waite recalled telling him he did not want his wife to learn of his relations with Mrs. Horton, who had already testified for the state. Waite answered "No." Waite folled his arms and smiled at the prosecutor as he denied having conversation with Brothers in the Waite apartment. He said he was surprised to learn he gave the ring to the nurse.

Waite denied faking insanity in Bellevue, saying he knew that he planned a false defense of road books on nervous diseases. He said he did not tell District Attorney Bryan and Brothers while in Bellevue that "man from Egypt" killed Peck. He said he had asked Mrs. Horton if she had heard of a "man from Egypt" but he denied he had otherwise spoken of such a character. He said he did not think himself crazy.

Ground Glass in Marmalade. New York, May 26.—Waite was examined and Miss Catherine Peck was called. Waite testified yesterday he placed ground glass and germs of pneumonia and influenza type in her food. Peck said he wanted her to corroborate Waite's statement that he placed ground glass in the food she ate. Miss Peck told of accepting Waite for what he appeared to be, and told of entrusting her business affairs to him. She said she ate some marmalade and when she went to the jar again found it full of something like sand. She took it back to the store and the grocer apologized.

Waite's Own. One of the most successful preparations in use for this disease is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. S. W. McClellan, Blanton Springs, Ala., writes: "Our baby had whooping cough as bad as most any one could have it. I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it soon got him well." Obtainable everywhere.

A Symbol of Health.

The Pythagoreans of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the fire quited star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and still fulfills its ancient mission as a symbol of health.

If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of these tablets from your druggist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which they afford. Obtainable everywhere.

ASLTS IS FINE FOR KIDNEYS, QUIT MEAT

Flush the Kidneys at Once When Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poison from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular or passes or is attended by a sensation of stinging, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then let you know. This famous salt is made from the soda of groves and lemon juice, combined with citric acid and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so that no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lemon water drink which regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Some Queer Ones

A Connecticut hen celebrated her birthday by laying six eggs at one cackle.

Joshua Nickerson of Boston has worn the same broadcloth overcoat fifty-five years and says it is good yet.

A St. Louis woman trailed a man seven months before she was convinced he was not her missing husband.

The secretary of Sing Sing's Welfare league, who was a wife tapper, has installed a big safe in the league quarters. He thinks thieves may be around.

"I'm suffering from hydrophobia—fear of water," explained a man to a Winthrop police judge when arraigned for drunkenness, and he was fined $5 for the joke.

Two Pullman coaches lifted from the track and deposited on the campus by a derelict were used as laboratories for fifty students by Blackburn college at Carlinville, Ill.

PIERCE THE TIN CANS AND SWAT MOSQUITOES.

Small Boys Told to See That No Water Is Left Standing.

Dr. Charles F. Bolduan, who has been designated spring poet of the New York health department, got busy the other day and produced this just as a sample of what he can do:

Mother, lend me the hammer;

Mother, give me the pick;

For I'm a mosquito slayer—

These two will do the trick.

Knock all the bottles on the head.

Pierce through the cans in the bottoms.

And soon all the skeeters will be dead.

And you'll not have to swat 'em.

This effusion was written as an inspiration to small boys, who, if they follow the advice of Health Commissioner Emerson, will arm themselves with a hammer and the ice pick and go in search of tin cans and bottles.

"For," say the instructions issued by the department, "a tin can half filled with stagnant water will easily breed over 2000 mosquitoes. Old bottles and broken crockery are also prolific sources of mosquito breeding, and the health department's bureau of public health education therefore suggests utilizing the destructive instinct of boys in its mosquito campaign."

NO CHANCE FOR A FAT MAN.

New York Civil Service Outlines Qualities For Employees.

The New York city civil service commission has begun to eliminate from candidates for city jobs the physically and morally unfit. Very fat people are not wanted.

"Our aim is to have robust and practical men in the public service," said Henry Moskowitz, president of the commission. "We have divided the civil service applicants into four big groups—clerks, police, firemen and laborers."

"We are paying attention to obesity. We let a candidate expand his chest all he can. That's his blessed privilege if he has a corporeity. If the expansion equals the corporeity he's lucky."

"Every candidate for a place as fireman must stand a test for blood pressure, and in order to get short and stocky 'smoke eaters' who have big chest expansion we have reduced the height for firemen from five feet seven and one-half inches to five feet seven inches. The height limit for policemen stands unchanged at five feet seven and one-half inches."

NEW GAS MASK FOR ARMY.

Invention of Professors Prager and Estabrooke of City College.

Announcement was made the other day of a patent of a gas mask for use in trench warfare for the United States army by William A. Prager and William B. Estabrooke, instructors in the chemistry department of the College of the City of New York. The device is said to be extremely light and comfortable and is founded on the theory of the absorption of gases by certain substances.

The apparatus has attracted wide attention from military men, who have in preliminary tests found the mask practicable for use by the war department. As a result arrangements have been made for the inventors to deliver lectures and give demonstrations of their patent at the Plattsburg summer camp this month.

Figures assembled in the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce show the greatest month was "last" last, when more than $20,000,000 worth of munitions left American ports.

Shipments of high explosive shells and shrapnel are crossing the Atlantic now at the rate of $1,000,000 worth daily, and vessels are carrying $500,000 worth of powder a day. Firearms and cartridges valued at more than $5,000,000 went to Europe during March.

The Standard Remedy In Countless Homes

Relieves Constipation Easily Without Gripping or Discomfort

MRS. OLIVER YOUNG

Indigestion and constipation are two conditions that are closely related and the cause of much physical suffering.

The tendency to indulge one's appetite is more or less general and most people suffer at one time or another from rebellion of the overtaxed organs of digestion and elimination. A pleasantly effective remedy, that will quickly relieve the congestion of poisonous stomach waste and restore regularity, is the compound of simple laxative herbs sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a mild, pleasant laxative tonic, free from opiates or narcotic drugs, and has been the standard household remedy in thousands of homes for many years.

Mrs. Oliver Young, Merrill, Wis., writing to Dr. Caldwell says, who knows of nothing so effective for regulating the stomach and bowels, since taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

she feels ten years younger; her work seems easier and she has regained her appetite.

Get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin from your druggist and have it in the house. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

THE BEE HIVE G. H. BAILES PROPRIETOR

WE'VE HAD AN IDEA

Ideas sometimes are dangerous things, and then again—sometimes—ideas, if properly carried out, prove a great benefit to mankind generally. This new idea of ours is simply this:

To use the entire machinery of this establishment to make shopping easier. In other words, make it possible for every man, woman and child within a radius of fifty miles of this busy Bee Hive to do their shopping by mail. There are thousands of things in our stock that can just as easily be purchased by mail as in person, and we see no reason whatever why we shouldn't build up a big mail order business.

We know that our prices are right because we buy right. And as to the merchandise—if it does not measure up to your every expectation we always refund your money.

In a few weeks now we will have ready for delivery the first number of a little publication which will be for free distribution among our customers, which will list a number of items, many of them SPECIAL offerings for mail order customers. Look for it.

We will pay delivery charges on all mail orders amounting to $2.00 or more, where cash, check or money order accompanies the order.
